WELCOME

MOMENT OF PAUSE

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS ..... ACS p. 29

P: Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, creator of the stars of night,
companion at the evening table,
breath over the deep waters.

C: Amen.

P: Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and one another.

P: Holy and gracious God,

C: we confess that we have sinned against you this day. Some of our sin we know - the thoughts and words and deeds of which we are ashamed - but some is known only to you. In the name of Jesus Christ we ask forgiveness. Deliver and restore us, that we may rest in peace. Amen.

P: As tender as parent to child, so deep is God's compassion for you. As high as heaven is above earth, so vast is God's love for you. As far as east is from west, so far God removes your sin from you, renewing your life through Jesus Christ. Thanks be to God.

C: Amen.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

FIRST READING: 1 Corinthians 1:18-31

L: A Reading from First Corinthians

<sup>18</sup> The message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup> For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart."

<sup>20</sup> Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? <sup>21</sup> For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of the proclamation, to save those who believe. <sup>22</sup> For Jews ask for signs and Greeks desire wisdom, <sup>23</sup> but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to gentiles, <sup>24</sup> but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. <sup>25</sup> For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

<sup>26</sup> Consider your own call, brothers and sisters: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. <sup>27</sup> But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; <sup>28</sup> God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to abolish things that are, <sup>29</sup> so that no one might boast in the presence of God. <sup>30</sup> In contrast, God is why you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, <sup>31</sup> in order that, as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 5:1-12

L: A reading from the Gospel of Matthew

C: Glory to You, O Lord

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. <sup>2</sup> And he began to speak and taught them, saying:

<sup>3</sup> "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>4</sup> "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

<sup>5</sup> "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

<sup>6</sup> "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

<sup>7</sup> "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

<sup>8</sup> "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup> "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

<sup>10</sup> "Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup> "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. <sup>12</sup> Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Come out of sadness, wherever you've been.
Come, brokenhearted; let rescue begin.
Come, find your mercy, oh, sinner, come kneel.

Earth has no sorrow that heaven can't heal.

There's hope for the hopeless and all who have strayed.
Come sit at the table. Come taste the grace.
There's rest for the weary, rest that endures.
Earth has no sorrow that heaven can't cure.

Refrain

So, lay down your burdens, lay down your shame.
All who are broken, lift up your face.
Oh, wanderer, come home; you're not too far.
So, lay down your hurt, lay down your heart; come as you are.

Refrain

There's joy for the mourning, oh, sinner be still.

POSTLUDE: "O God of Light".....arr. Jacob Weber

Star Words: Epiphany 2026

The use of star words, also called “star gifts,” is a prayer practice connected to Epiphany and the new year. Each star word has a unique intention word, or guiding word, and is written or printed on paper stars. These paper stars are then arranged, most commonly face down, on a table or in a basket. During the worship service, individuals are invited to draw a word at random, and to use that word as a guiding word throughout the year. Participants are encouraged to trust the word they have drawn, and not to replace the word. Individuals are often encouraged to place their star word somewhere they will see it regularly throughout the year to allow consistent reflection on how God has moved through, around, or in connection to that word.

Why star words?

- The Magi followed a star, which ultimately led them to Jesus. Therefore, we too use all the resources we have available to us—including creative prayer practices and intention words for the new year—to move closer to Jesus.
- We trust that God uses multiple ways to guide us and speak to us. Star words are one such lens that might provide us a way to look for God in our midst, both actively and in hindsight.
- We trust that it is often easy to miss God in our daily midst. Having an intention word to consider both in present days, as well as to reflect on at the end of the year, allows for us to see God in ways we may not have seen God before. This is the greatest gift.
- We know that the most common prayer practice for many involves speaking to God as opposed to silence or contemplation. We believe that star words invite a new prayer rhythm of reflection and review that can be a powerful new way to connect with God.
- By not looking or sorting through the star words at their selection, we practice the spiritual task of receiving. It is not us that are in control in this moment. Instead, we trust that God is present, and we let go of our desire to cultivate or control.

14. Announcing: Lenten Bible Study: For Lent 2026, our theme is "Fruits of the Spirit." This theme will guide us in both worship and Bible study.

In worship, we'll use the 9 fruits identified in Galatians 5:22-23, "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control" together with the 3 pillars of Lent: 1) how can we give this particular fruit of the Spirit? 2) where might we need to fast from its opposite? and 3) we will pray for these fruits to grow within and among us, and throughout the world. We will focus on one specific fruit each week from Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday.

In Bible study, we will read and discuss a chosen corresponding story for the "fruit of the week." These Bible study texts will be chosen and shared with participants ahead of time.

Two Times to participate:

Mondays 2-3 pm, February 23 - March 23 (no study the week of Ash Wednesday nor Holy Week)

Wednesdays 7-8 pm, February 25 - March 25 (no study the week of Ash Wednesday nor Holy Week)

Cost: Free

Bring: Your Bible!
