CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS..... ELW p.94

P: In the name of the Father,
 and of the † Son,
 and of the Holy Spirit.
C: Amen.

P: Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
C: Amen.

P: Most Merciful God,
C: We confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, be what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

P: In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the † Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
C: Amen.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

FIRST READING: Exodus 17:1-7

L: A Reading from Exodus

¹ From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. ² The people quarreled with Moses and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?" ³ But the people thirsted there for water, and the people complained against Moses and said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?" ⁴ So Moses cried out to the LORD, "What shall I do for this people? They are almost ready to stone me." ⁵ The LORD said to Moses, "Go on ahead of the people and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile and go. ⁶ I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink." Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. ⁷ He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled and tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

GOSPEL READING: John 4:5-26

P: A reading from the Gospel of John

C: Glory to You, O Lord

[Jesus] came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.)⁸ The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.)¹⁰ Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."¹¹ The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water?"¹² Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?"¹³ Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again,¹⁴ but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life."¹⁵ The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come back."¹⁷ The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband,'¹⁸ for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!"¹⁹ The woman said to him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet."²⁰ Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem."²¹ Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem."²² You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews."²³ But the hour is coming and is now here when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him."²⁴ God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."²⁵ The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us."²⁶ Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking to you."

11. Announcing: Lenten Bible Study: For Lent 2026, our theme is "Fruits of the Spirit."

This theme will guide us in both worship and Bible study.

In worship, we'll use the 9 fruits identified in Galatians 5:22-23, "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control" together with the 3 pillars of Lent: 1) how can we give this particular fruit of the Spirit? 2) where might we need to fast from its opposite? and 3) we will pray for these fruits to grow within and among us, and throughout the world. We will focus on one specific fruit each week from Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday.

In Bible study, we will read and discuss a chosen corresponding story for the "fruit of the week." These Bible study texts will be chosen and shared with participants ahead of time.

Two Times to participate:

Mondays 2-3 pm, February 23 - March 23 (no study the week of Ash Wednesday nor Holy Week)

Wednesdays 7-8 pm, February 25 - March 25 (no study the week of Ash

Wednesday nor Holy Week)

13. Building Policy Updates. In February, the church council, mindful of our All Are Welcome credo, voted to approve two new additions to church policy: 1) Updates to Building and Land Use and Access Policies, and 2) Policy Regarding Response to Unannounced United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") Presence On Site. Both policies were drafted under the guidance of Dan Brown, St. John's Member and Legal Counsel. The "Building and Land Use and Access Policy" was written to clarify which areas in our church building may have restricted access for authorized persons - for a variety of reasons - for the purposes of maintaining privacy and security of personal identifying information; this policy commensurately clarifies spaces that are for public use with unrestricted access. The "Policy Regarding Response to Unannounced United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") Presence On Site" clarifies appropriate and legal procedures and practices, in the event of an unannounced visit from law enforcement personnel or other Government Enforcement Personnel, including the role of Judicial Warrants. To read the full text of these policies, contact Mark Renze, Council President at markrenze888@gmail.com
