

St. John's EBCs, Everyday Bible Conversations!

EBC 3, 2, 1! – On Location in 2026! Leading to Worship Sunday October 11, 2026

Reading: Matthew 22:1-14

EBC focuses on bringing the Bible into our Everyday Lives, emphasizing God's Everyday presence by finding connections in our physical world! This week, Jesus Describes a king's wedding feast where everyone's invited... after no one shows up. Click here: Week 41 Video
Welcome to this week's EBC 3,2,1! Three points, two questions, and one action step!

Three Points

- The king's invitation extends beyond the expected guests to people from the streets, both good and bad, showing that God's invitation to the kingdom is far more expansive than human expectations.
- The king fills the banquet hall with all kinds of people, reminding us that God's grace is not reserved for those who seem worthy, respectable, or deserving of a place at the table.
- God's invitation calls us to make room for people we might otherwise overlook or exclude, trusting that the table of God's kingdom is bigger and more diverse than we can imagine.

Two Questions

- Who might you be leaving off your guest list—intentionally or unintentionally—who deserves to hear that they are welcome at God's table?
- How would our churches and communities change if we truly believed that God's invitation extends to all kinds of people, regardless of their background, status, or past?

Action Step

- Make room at the table. Intentionally invite someone you might not normally spend time with into a conversation, a meal, or a shared activity, practicing the expansive welcome God extends to all.

Don't like these questions? Do these verses say something different to you? Great! What it is?
And as always, you are encouraged to find a friend (or two or many) and take an EBC coffee break! Find 15-25 minutes somewhere in the week and share your faith. Have fun finding God this week in your Everyday Life!
