WELCOME

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

P: Because we share Jesus' baptism, we know that nothing —
not even sin and death—
can separate us from God's love.
Trusting in God's love,
let us confess our sin.

C: Holy God, you have called us to love you with heart, mind, soul, and strength,
and to love our neighbors as ourselves.
But, if we are honest, we know that sometimes we hurt each other and fail to keep our promises to you.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Teach us, day by day,
to turn away from what is wrong
and turn to you in faith;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

P: Hear the good news:
We are dead to sin and evil
and alive to God in Jesus.
Now we can walk in new life!
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

C: Thanks be to God. Amen.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

FIRST READING: Romans 3:19-28

L: A Reading from Romans

¹⁹ Now we know that, whatever the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world may be held accountable to God. ²⁰ For no human will be justified before him by deeds prescribed by the law, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

²¹ But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God has been disclosed and is attested by the Law and the Prophets, ²² the righteousness of God through the faith of Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction, ²³ since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God; ²⁴ they are now justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, ²⁵ whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood, effective through faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over the sins previously committed; ²⁶ it was to demonstrate at the present time his own righteousness, so that he is righteous and he justifies the one who has the faith of Jesus.

²⁷ Then what becomes of boasting? It is excluded. Through what kind of law? That of works? No, rather through the law of faith. ²⁸ For we hold that a person is justified by faith apart from works prescribed by the law.

C: Glory to you, O Lord

³¹ Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples, ³² and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." ³³ They answered him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?"

³⁴ Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. ³⁵ The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. ³⁶ So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed."

(10:30) SACRAMENT OF HOLY BAPTISM

(8:30) APOSTLES CREED ELW p.105

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate.
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Anthem Text

As we gather at your table, as we listen to your Word, help us know, O God, your presence: let our hearts and minds be stirred. Nourish us with sacred story till we claim it for our own; teach us through this holy banquet how to make Love's vict'ry known.	Give us, Christ, your great compassion to forgive as you forgave; may we still behold your image in the world you died to save.
Turn our worship into witness in the sacrament of life; send us forth to love and serve you, bringing peace where there is strife.	Gracious Spirit, help us summon other guests to share that feast where triumphant Love will welcome those who had been last and least. There no more will envy blind us nor will pride our peace destroy, as we join with saints and angels to repeat the sounding joy, the sounding joy.

Burst the Barn 2026: Livestream Upgrade

Online worship has become a portal for connection, pastoral care, and an entry point to life among the St. John's community. It has become essential to our robust worship life.

It has become so much more than simply an alternative to worship in the sanctuary. Members worship online while travelling or sick. Homebound members remain actively connected to the rest of the community in a way they have not been before.

Visitors and prospective members use online worship as way to get to know St. John's before walking in the door. By the time they worship with us in-person, prospective members are already knowledgeable about who St. John's is and feel familiar with our pastors, and confident that our worship style matches their desires.

Likewise, livestreaming funerals has made it possible for family and friends to participate in the funeral service when travel may be prohibitive.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if our online worship was more dynamic and interactive?

Investing in a one-time, significant upgrade to our livestream equipment and software is included in the "Burst the Barn 2026" Stewardship Appeal. Our goal for the whole appeal is to increase offerings by $62,500 to accomplish three primary goals, including making this upgrade to online worship technology and equipment.

Pray for a generous response to this appeal. Pray about your own response. Consider increasing your giving as God leads you. Be ready to make your commitment on Stewardship Sunday: November 8 when we "Burst the Barn" together with our gifts. In our giving we express our gratitude for the gift of online worship, and the many ways it expands St. John's presence and reach, for its profound influence upon our ministry.

Here is a bar graph which displays two charts of our congregation's giving. One bar shows how many gifts are currently being given at the indicated weekly amounts. The other bar shows how many gifts are needed in these levels to reach our goal.

Look over the chart. Ask yourself these questions:

- How does my giving level compare with other ways I use my money?
- How adequately does my giving reflect my gratitude to God for all that God has done for me?
- Where would I be if I doubled my offerings? And can I consider doing that?
- How much more could I give if I really wanted to?
